MAY WORSHIP

What is Outreach?

By: Rosalee Rehrig, Outreach Chairperson

What is Outreach? Outreach can be described as serving, encouraging, giving, and showing mercy to others just as the Good Samaritan showed mercy. Outreach is an act of worship, even though it is not always justified by direct preaching. It often leads to conversations about Jesus and “loving thy Neighbor”. Our Neighbor is anyone we might meet, even our enemies.

We have all been given different abilities by God. We are called to use our abilities to further God's work on Earth. We do not need to have money or things to donate, but just giving our time to helping others can make a difference in people's lives. That is why, here at Zions, we have an Outreach Committee. We are reaching out into the community and helping others. We are doing this through the local food Pantry, helping at and visiting the Adult Daycare Center, helping to organize a Fall festival with Trunk or Treat for the local children as well as giving to those less fortunate in the local nursing homes who may not have family around the holidays. We are given opportunities at these events to make sure people in the area know we care and to offer them a place to come to if they are not already going to church to worship.

Our motives in reaching out to help others must always be sincere. We should not be doing outreach deliberately to be seen by others as a way to increase our egos. Matthew 5:16 says “Let your light shine before others, so they may see your good works and give glory to God.”

1John 3:18 “ Let us not love with words or speech but with action and in truth”.

The next time you are asked to help others, know you are doing God's work. Matthew 9:37-38 “ The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few; ask the Lord to send workers.”

Thank You!

We're grateful for each of you—your kindness, your faith, and the many ways you lift our church family every week.

HAPPY
Mother's Day

A Blessing for All Women

May God's grace rest upon all women in our community—those who mother, those who mentor, those who lead, and those who quietly lift others with kindness. May you feel seen in the love you give, strengthened in the burdens you carry, and encouraged in the gifts you share so generously.

May God surround you with peace in the busy moments, joy in the ordinary ones, and hope that renews your spirit day by day. You are a blessing to this church, and we give thanks for the many ways you reflect God's love into the world.

Sunday School News

Annual Easter Egg Hunt

Our annual Easter Egg Hunt was held on April 4, welcoming 51 children and their families for a joyful afternoon together.

Thank you to everyone who helped set up and hide eggs that Saturday. A special thank-you goes to Marianne Storch and her crew for filling all the eggs.

We prepared three age groups, each with 26 dozen eggs and three prizes—and the kids had a wonderful time!

Thank You for Supporting the CF Special Offering

Thank you for your generous donations to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation during our special offering at the end of April. Your kindness helps fuel research, support families, and move us closer to a cure.

May 24 – No Sunday School

Vacation Bible School – June 22–26 - 6:30–8:30 PM

For all kids age 3 through Grade 5

Join us this summer as we explore Rainforest Falls, a VBS adventure that helps kids discover what it means to be rooted in relationship with God, our Creator and our safe place in life's storms.

Register online at myvbs.org/zionstonechurch or through our Facebook page.

We can't wait to plunge into the adventure and discover the nature of God with all our VBS kids.

See you there!

Members and Friends of Keystone Conference,

Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation— if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good. 1 Peter 2:2-3

This is such an interesting line from one of the Lectionary texts assigned to us this week. This feminine metaphor of God feeding us milk as our mothers once did, so that we might grow into salvation, into wholeness, is striking and beautiful. And yet children don't need to be told to long for their mother's or other milk – it's instinctual because it's needed for survival. But the author seems to know that later in life, we will need to be told to yearn for the purity of God's goodness, as we so often confuse good and bad milk, good and bad things. It becomes a choice later, a daily choice to seek the best kinds of spiritual food, to choose from a menu that the world offers us that offers so many options, most of which are not good for the work of growing into salvation.

But the latter part of the sentence is important as well: if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good. The hopeful response by us is that we have indeed tasted that the Lord is good, so that we know what good or bad milk tastes like. Last Sunday, in a sermon I preached, I talked about how to discern the voice of the Good Shepherd against the other voices floating in our heads and in the world. The only way to do so is by listening to what that voice is telling us to do, whether to love or hate, to heal or hurt, and practice mercy or judgment. It's also the recipe for knowing the difference between fresh milk and sour milk. In our best moments, surely, we tasted that the Lord is good, so good, and the work still before us to continue to seek that good milk, day by day, so that we may grow into wholeness.

Rev. Kevin J. McLemore
Transitional Regional Conference Minister for Region 1
Keystone Conference UCC

Keystone Conference of the United Church of Christ's first Annual Meeting will be held June 5-7 at Millersville University in Millersville. Overnight accommodations will be on campus as well as the DoubleTree Hilton in Lancaster. Registration will begin in March 2026.

Our theme is "Joy at the Table Together" and our centering scripture is Acts 2:46-47 "Every day they met together, breaking bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God." The meeting will include a Service of Consecration for Keystone Conference.

Speakers will include Rev. Dr. Marcia McFee, author of Think Like a Filmmaker: Sensory-Rich Worship for Unforgettable Messages; Rev. Dr. Karen Georgia Thompson, General Minister and President of the United Church of Christ; Rev. Dr. Mary Luti, author of Do This: Communion for Just and Courageous Living; Rev. Greg Edwards, Executive Director of POWER Interfaith, Secretary Russell Redding, PA Secretary of Agriculture, and Rev. Freeman Palmer, Conference Minister for the Central Atlantic Conference.

How a Desire to Grow in Faith Became a Journey into Unexpected Ministry

Written by Licensed Lay Minister (LLM) Tanya Kantner

If you had told me a few years ago that I would be serving as a Licensed Lay Minister, I'm not sure I would have believed you. For most of my life, Scripture felt beautiful but distant—something I respected but didn't always understand. Then, slowly and quietly, it began to take root in my heart. I signed up for an online Faith+Lead course through Luther Seminary—training usually taken by laypeople preparing for ministry—simply because I wanted to grow in my faith. I wasn't seeking a role or a title; at that point, there wasn't even a pathway to consider. I just felt a tug I couldn't ignore.

Then the synod announced the new Licensed Lay Minister initiative. I didn't feel ready or qualified. But I recognized that same tug—that gentle, persistent nudge of the Spirit—and I said yes. Not because I felt prepared, but because I trusted that God could take my imperfect offering and turn it into something meaningful.

Since then, my ministry has unfolded in ways that have surprised me again and again. I've learned that the heart of this role isn't about doing more—it's about being present. It's about showing up where people carry joy, grief, questions, and hope, trusting that Christ is already there ahead of us. My role in those moments is simple but sacred: to listen, to hold space, to pray with people, and to reflect back the light and love of Christ that is already moving in their lives. Sometimes that looks like sitting quietly with someone who is grieving; sometimes it's celebrating a moment of joy; sometimes it's offering a word of encouragement or a prayer when someone feels lost. In all of it, I try to be a gentle reminder that they are not alone—that God is with them in whatever they're carrying.

Serving within the Pretzel City Parish has been one of the greatest gifts of this journey. Shared ministry has allowed me to connect with people across several congregations, each with their own stories. It has also opened doors into the wider community—places where the church's presence matters deeply, even for those who may never sit in a pew.

Some of the most meaningful moments have come through simple, hands-on ministry: harvesting potatoes in the fall for local food programs, partnering with community food pantries, planning trips to places like the Museum of the Bible and the Ark Encounter, or gathering people for Bible study who have been unchurched for years but are still hungry for connection and meaning. These ministries remind me that the Gospel is not confined to a sanctuary. It lives in fields, fellowship halls, parking lots, and conversations with people who are searching for belonging.

VOLUME 34 | ISSUE 5

Looking ahead, I'm excited to continue deepening relationships within the Pretzel City Parish. I've come to cherish the everyday moments—the conversations, the intergenerational gatherings, the unexpected holy interruptions—where God quietly draws us closer to one another. My hope is that through these moments, people feel more seen, more connected, and more aware of God's love at work in their lives.

If someone were considering the Licensed Lay Minister pathway, I would tell them this: you don't need to have everything figured out. You don't need to feel certain or strong. The most surprising part of my journey has been discovering how God works through my vulnerability far more than through my confidence. Again and again, I've learned that ministry is not about our strength, but about God's.

I am deeply grateful for the synod's support and their commitment to developing lay leadership. Their encouragement, guidance, and investment in creating pathways for people like me have made this journey possible. It has reminded me that God calls people from all walks of life into meaningful ministry—and that the church is stronger when we answer those calls together.

I began this journey quietly, almost reluctantly. But each step has revealed a little more of what God is doing—not just in me, but also through me, and in the congregations and communities I'm blessed to serve. My prayer is simply to keep saying yes, one invitation at a time, trusting that the Spirit will continue to lead the way.

DID YOU KNOW that your Mission Support helps fund areas of the synod and ELCA like this one and many other important initiatives? Your contributions are making a significant impact and helping others grow in faith, supporting the synod's lanes of Growing Young, Gaining Strength, and Going Beyond Death to Life, along with the directions of loving like Jesus, healing like Jesus, and engaging like Jesus.
